Description

Are you looking for a dual-purpose, turn-key-ready helicopter equipped for various missions? This 2013 407GX combines executive style with utility performance. With only 837 hours total time since new, this helicopter features great component times, no major upcoming inspections, and is currently FAR part 135 maintained. Equipped with the Garmin G1000 panel, this 407GX excels in any single-pilot mission. In addition to the G1000 suite, this superior helicopter gives an owner/operator greater peace of mind with these safety enhancements: up-to-date in-flight weather and the upgraded Traffic Avoidance System. Along with these safety enhancements, the current owner has spared no expense: with plush leather seating, air-conditioning, beautiful interior trims, and the addition of USB ports, the corporate interior space was designed and built for the executive traveler. This 407GX is also equipped with an external cargo hook, allowing your operation to be executive transport today and utility external load tomorrow. This immaculate machine is ready for immediate sale. Call the team at Sellacopter today to schedule your aircraft showing.
